
Internal probes do not bound the full field. Layer ranges are descriptive; the omitted arm does not execute its plotted counterfactual term.